

ICCB8

The International Conference on Coelenterate Biology 1-5 December 2013, Eilat, Israel

Late Breaking Abstract Submission - 9 September – 1 October

Late Breaking Abstracts will provide an opportunity to communicate the most recent scientific breakthroughs to participants of the ICCB8.

It is not considered a prolongation of the regular Abstract Submission which ended 25 August 2013. Late Breaking Abstracts are accepted from 9 September until 1 October 2013 via the ICCB web site.

Late Breaking Abstracts will be scored by members of the Organizing Committee.

-  Submitted abstracts must achieve a score high enough to qualify for oral presentation at the Conference; abstracts not achieving this score will be rejected.
-  Late breaking abstracts accepted for the ICCB8 must be presented orally by the first author in a scientific session assigned by Organizing Committee.
-  Authors of accepted late breaking abstracts will enjoy early registration fees.

ICCB8 Photography Competition - Tuesday, 3 December

A digital photography competition will be held on Tuesday (3 December), early evening hours. The competition is open to all delegates and accompanying persons, with a limit of three photos per participant. There will be a competition entry fee of US$10 (40 IS) per photograph, payable in cash on 1 and 2 December, 2013 at the ICCB venue. All registered delegates and registered accompanying persons will be invited to vote for their top three favorite photographs.
